

A singular and masterfully executed film that is at once concert tribute, Marley family travelogue, and humanitarian documentary. Africa Unite ignites the screen with the spirit of world-renowned reggae icon Bob Marley in its every frame.

In commemoration of Bob's 60th birthday, Africa Unite is centered on the Marleys' first-time-ever family trip to Ethiopia in 2005. There in the capital city of Addis Ababa three generations of Marleys take part in a landmark one week event including a 12-hour concert like no other, attended by more than 350,000 people from around the world, with the ultimate purpose of inspiring the young generations of Africa to unite for the future of their continent.

Features exuberant on-stage spots as well as a soundtrack brimming with Bob Marley studio classics. Includes appearances by UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador/actor Danny Glover, world music sensation Angélique Kidjo, Bob Marley's mother Mrs. Booker, and Princess Mary, granddaughter of Emperor Haile Selassie, as well as archival footage of Bob circa 1980.
